The LEADER
Introduces
David Shapiro

"One must be really active, to be part of a village." This is the spirit that Dave Shapiro has adopted ever since he came to Freeport in 1945 and bought the Crystal Lake Hotel on South Grove st. The establishment has been completely remodeled, interior and exterior, and its many facilities have been offered gratis to any and all organizations for their meetings and affairs.

The hotel, now called the Shorecrest, has become a hub of activity.

Various organizations, such as the talented high school theater group "Varieties of 1950," the Nassau County Multiple Sclerosis Society, Freeport Chamber of Commerce, Knights of Columbus, and scores of others, hold their rehearsals, meetings, and celebrations at the Shorecrest, with Mr. Shapiro, happily acting as their host.

Dave Shapiro was born in Russia forty-six years ago. The family moved to New York City when Dave was two years old. He attended the local school, Stuyvesant High School, and was graduated from New York University and NYU Law School. However, his sympathetic nature and great desire to be a host to people, made him deviate from law into the hotel business. His first enterprise in this field was in the city of Long Beach. He has been a resident of Long Island since 1927.

Every possible minute of Dave Shapiro's time is spent in some activity. He is a member of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce, Elks, Masons, National Hotel Association, International Society of Hotel Proprietors, and the Hotel Greeters of America. He is very interested in all youth movements and sports. This season he is sponsoring a fishing contest for participants of Freeport's waterfront thrills.

The Crystal Lake Hotel holds many nostalgic memories for those who remember when Freeport was the center of the "theatrical headlining set." The "Lights Club" was the headquarters of show business. Today, the Shorecrest Hotel has become the mecca and the "home away from home" for the hundreds of tourists, visitors, and sportsmen who come to enjoy the natural pleasures of Freeport and Long Island.

"I conducted a personal survey," said Dave, "of all Long Island before I decided to settle in Freeport. I am very grateful for the cooperation of the many friends I have found here. The Shorecrest Hotel is one of the largest transient hotels in Long Island, and I have endeavored to remodel its fifty rooms, spacious verandas, dining hall, bar, and cocktail lounge, so that it would be of the best in modern and fire-proof establishments."

Harry S. Ebbets procured a pair of boxing gloves from the State Boxing Commission which he exhibited in a window of his West Merrick store. Bids were taken on the gloves over Radio Station WQBB Sunday and Jules Mazor offered the "best price" for them. (Continued on Page 4)

Vote on New School Set for June 15;
Parking Meter Time Action DeferredMerchants Appeal for 6 P.M., Closing Hour;
Ian Murray Spokesman

In the absence of Mayor Robert L. Dorse, the Village Board reserved decision after conducting a public hearing Monday night on the urgent appeal of the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association for it to rescind its previous action and fix the time for the operation of parking meters at from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M., instead of from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. Leonard D. B. Smith, acting Mayor, presided in the absence of Mr. Dorse who was called out of town on business.

Ian J. Murray, who explained that he represented the Chamber of Commerce. He said 300 merchants and 8,000 of their patrons had signed petitions requesting the setting of the parking meter time at from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. for a trial period of six months. He added that some consideration had been given to making an exception on Thursday and Friday nights, especially the latter, when the stores are open for business. However, he expressed fear that this might confuse out of town residents coming to Freeport to shop.

Mr. Smith said Hempstead and Lynbrook had set their parking meter time at from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. with the anticipation that Freeport would adopt the same closing hour. Both villages were watching Freeport, he added, the acting Mayor of the Board would consider the matter carefully and take definite action at the meeting on Monday night, May 15.

Wilbert F. DeMott, superintendent of buildings, in his monthly report said 14 permits were issued during April for new buildings estimated to cost $184,400 and 13 for additions and alterations involving $17,875, for a total of $202,275. Action on a request from postal employees for the village to adopt a resolution deploring the curtailment of the mail service was deferred.

Permission was granted the auxiliaries of William Clinton Story Post, A.L., and Henry Theodore Poppy, V.F.W., to conduct Buddy Poppy parade starting Friday, May 19, and continuing until Memorial Day.

Freeport Exceeds
Cancer Goal Quota
With $5,500 Total

Quota was $4,000; Was First Village to Do So; Leaders in Campaign

For the second successive year, Freeport has gone over the top and exceeded its quota by a wide margin in the Nassau County Cancer Fund campaign. Mrs. Benjamin J. Reiner, village committee chairman, announced today contributions had totaled $5,500, or 25 per cent above the quota of $4,400. She added that Freeport had been the first village in Nassau County to attain its goal.

Among the sincerest workers for the cause was Fred W. Stanley, year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, 237 South Brookside ave. Fred, who suffered an attack of infantile paralysis last summer from which he has recovered, made clay models of animals which he sold for 25 cents each to earn $6 for the cause.

Northwest Civic Ass'n.

A special election has been called by the Board of Education for Thursday, June 15, to vote on a proposal to float a bond issue with which to finance the construction of a school on a site bounded by West Merrick st., South Bayview ave., Smith and Washington sts. to relieve congestion in the Archer st. school.

President Leo F. Giblyn, made the announcement at the monthly meeting of the Northwest Civic Association Monday night in the Seaman ave. school. At the conclusion of his talk, a resolution placing the association on record as being in favor of the construction of the school was adopted unanimously. Friday and Saturday, June 2 and 3, have been designated as registration days for the special election.

President Giblyn advised the civic workers the cost of the proposed school had been estimated at $1,300,000, completely equipped with grounds, graded, and everything taken care of. This probably will be the amount of the bond issue. The building will have 18 classrooms, special rooms, a gymnasium and auditorium and other features. In the speaker explained that nine classes in the Grove st. school would be shifted to the new building.

Mr. Giblyn also told of the building developments in the southern section of the village had resulted in the overcrowding of the Archer st. school, making it necessary to build an absolute necessity. Superintendent of Schools John W. Dodd supplemented Mr. Giblyn's remarks. President John S. McMichael presided at the meeting. Following action on the proposed new schools, Ralph L. Marshall, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted a report, presenting a slate recommending Mr. McMichael, for president; VanBaar Brown, vice-president; Hugh Erwin, corresponding secretary; Harold E. Pearson, treasurer, and Mrs. Doris Allen, recording secretary. All were unanimously elected.

COMING UP ON THE PUBLISHER'S AGENDA

As you know, this is the first issue of THE LEADER under new ownership. It is a great little paper, but we are hoping you will soon find it much improved paper as the weeks go by. You may have noticed a few changes in this, our first issue. The new "mast-head"—and the slogan—"South Nassau's Leading Weekly Newspaper"—and of course our pledge—"Truth and Fairness"—How do you like these few small changes?—And the new arrangement of the column "The Leader Introduces"—Does it remind you of the old days on the New York American?—The great Arthur Brisbane had his famous column in the same position?—We rather feel the writer of this column is on his way to being a very much read columnist—do you agree with us?—We are sure has plenty of "know-how."

In the weeks to come we plan to add many features to THE LEADER. What features would you like to see?—How about a column on Sports?—Fashion?—Our Water-front?—Community Affairs?—Teen-Agers?—If you will tell us what you would like, we will try to please you. Please remember, this is first and last, your paper too.

We would like for you to know our staff—George Goeller you know as the former editor of this paper—we are glad that George is continuing with us—he will help in many ways, writing club news and local happenings, and in these matters, George is "tops"—and then Eddie Vasil will be on the job, and we look for great things from him. He will continue writing VARIETIES which has a large following. Eddie has a fine flair for writing, and a host of friends—he will be a great part in the building of THE LEADER as South Nassau's Leading Weekly Newspaper.

As Business Manager we have Wallace Hamilton Campbell; truly a very, very interesting personality. W.H.C. has plenty of patience in his own way back—Business manager for Bernarr Macfadden he has more newspaper information and "know-how" at his finger tips than a dozen men.

You may note his time touch in THE LEADER, as the days go by. Incidentally, he is an old time Freeport resident—here he has since 1900.

With this combined knowledge of what it takes to make a great newspaper, plus the intimate knowledge of our community, how can we miss having a wonderful newspaper?—As for the publisher, well he just owns the paper—they may let him get his foot in the door once in a while, but he'll be checking on the boys now and then.

Well, this is just the beginning—when we are in our new offices early next week (20 So. Main) be sure to visit with us—in the meantime, if you like our paper—if you don't like it—if you have any suggestions, please write the Publisher in care of Box 211, Freeport. That's his own personal box, and he will give your letters his personal attention.

4 Concerts Assured For 1950-51 Season

List of Artists Is Tentatively Picked By Community Ass'n.

Memberships sufficient to provide for four excellent concerts next season were taken during last week's campaign of the Freeport Community Concert Association, Harold O. Pearson, the president announced at the close of the drive Saturday afternoon. Enrollment was larger than last year but below that of two years ago when 999 joined the group.

Saturday evening Mr. Pearson, officers of the association and the executive committee met in the office of the Freeport Federal Savings and Loan Association to tentatively select the artists for the next season. The list includes the DePaul's Infantry Chorus, which will appear here next April, a dancing number, a pianist and a vocal soloist.

However, Mr. Pearson said it would be impossible to tell whether all those desired could be procured until all itineraries have been completed. This will not be until July when tickets, listing the programs will be mailed to the members. In view of the fact substitutions may be necessary, it was decided not to make that tentative choices public.

The business meeting was followed by a musical during which piano duets were played by Mrs. John E. Hibberd and Mrs. Julius Fenyo, and there were vocal selections by Mrs. Lester Baumann and Mrs. Elizabeth Baldwin accompanied by Mrs. Elmer Garrett. Mrs. Clement Winter, the president, presided. Refreshments were served.

raised by taxation, $877,098 was not increased. Based on an estimated $448,877 assessed valuation for the district this would make a tax rate of $1.95 as compared to $1.92 for the year ending June 30.

President Giblyn went into minute details in explaining the various items of the budget, and answered questions asked at the end of his talk. With the $7,000 added by a vote of 107 to 17, on Mr. Crevels's motion, the gross budget for school purposes was increased to $1,331,476. The library budget of $40,000, same as this year, brought the gross budget up to $1,378,476. From this item, $459,380 in receipts anticipated from sources other than taxation was deducted, with $22,000 from surplus, making the net budget $877,098.

This budget was adopted by a vote of 108 to 13, and a proposition to take $50,000 from surplus to build a field house adjacent to the Cleveland ave. school for the new athletic field and a garage in which to house the motor equipment of the department, was voted 101 to 10.

Ward E. Winter was elected chairman of the meeting and Frank P. Wilson, clerk.

Leo F. Giblyn to Tell Need for a New School

Needs for a new school in the southwestern section of the village will be outlined by Leo F. Giblyn, president of the Board of Education, at the monthly meeting of the Southwest Civic Association Monday night in Exempt Firemen's Hall. Dr. John W. Dodd will also attend probably with other members of the board.

William Allin, president of the association is co-chairman of the citizens committee appointed to cooperate with the school trustees in enlightening the taxpayers and parents to the need of building to relieve the congestion in the Archer st. School.

President Allin today issued a general invitation for residents of Freeport to attend the meeting.

The Pied Piper of Freeport

By "DOC" ERLE V. PAINTER

History tells how, in 1284, a certain gentleman in Hamelin carried out the fastest extermination job on record. Seems that this fellow had a way of his own with a hot trumpet which made him irresistible to vermin. They listened, they followed, and they vanished. All of which probably proves that any man can obtain a following if he makes the right kind of noises.

Just two years ago a small group of people in Freeport began making noises in favor of a Boys' Club. Their ideas must have been sound because the village made a grant; the State made a grant and the Freeport Police Boys' Club was founded. Since then the membership has risen to more than 600 boys.

Patrolman Joe Romelka doesn't admit to any particular influence either with a hot trumpet or with rats, but he undoubtedly has a flair for attracting a following. Under his active leadership the Police Boys' Club has a year-round program of baseball, basketball, boxing, soccer, swimming, gymnastics and enough etceteras to fill a book.

All these activities are properly organized and every possible safety precaution is rigidly observed.

Pythian Sisters District Deputy Pays Unity Temple Official Visit

Mrs. Lena Hapuert, district deputy, paid her official visit to Unity Temple, Pythian Sisters, at its meeting Monday night in Pythian Hall. On being presented by Mrs. Florence Goldstein, most excellent chief, Mrs. Hapuert lauded the temple for its activities, particularly its charitable work. She referred especially to the monthly visits to the Northport Veterans Hospital, and the gift of a chair and equipment to the dental clinic in the hospital at Hefla, Palestine.

The feature of the evening was the staging of a fashion show in which spring garments and bonnets designed by Carol Green and the Shoda Hat Shop which were modeled by members of the temple. Those who modeled were Mrs. Gertrude Wolder, Mrs. Hortense Ross, Mrs. Florence Goldstein, Mrs. Renee Linker, Mrs. Miriam Holland, Miss Marilyn Fyvolent, Miss Sydel Harris and Mrs. Lita Schneider.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Wolder and Mrs. Addie Goldstein would conduct another visit to Northport Monday night. Plans for attending the convention in Long Island City, next Thursday, were completed. On the committee for the evening were Mrs. Paula Porter, Mrs. P. Goldstein and Mrs. Wolder. Mrs. Ann Fyvolent was in charge of the social hour.

the money to go to the cancer fund. Besides Mrs. Reiner, committee heads during the drive were Sheriff H. Alfred Vollmer, special gifts; Mrs. Daniel Friedman, village canvass; William S. Hughes, schools; Russell E. Hotelling, organizations; Dr. Jerome K. Asch, physicians; Dr. Robert Busch, dentists; Alan W. Vollmer, real estate and insurance; Edward Walter, automobile agencies; J. R. Gould, merchants, and Samuel D. Gerber, collections of containers. Mrs. Harold W. Batth was treasurer of the fund.

Election district captains were as follows:

District 34, Mrs. Julius Birgenbath; 35, Mrs. H. A. Vollmer; 36, Robert Gennell; 37, Mrs. W. Wilson Hammer; 38, Mrs. William Levitt; 39, Mrs. Edna Gilbert; 40, Mrs. Mary Heubner; 41, Mrs. Jules Masor; 42, Mrs. Ebbets; 43, Mrs. Catherine Grism; 44, Mrs. Martin Fisher; 45, Warden Winne, jr.; 46, Mrs. Curtis T. Brall; 47, Mrs. Henry Kessler; 48, Mrs. Catherine Koneck; 49, Mrs. Carl McIntyre; and 50, Mayor Robert L. Daxson. Mrs. Seward J. Baker, and Leslie Lewis.

Norman L. Penny, county chairman, commended Mrs. Reiner on her initiative in devising numerous ways to increase contributions to the fund; while other communities depended almost entirely on house-to-house canvasses. He referred especially to a beautiful performance, the disposing of a hand bag which was returned by Mrs. Horace White after she had won it, the sales by the Gattrell boy and the auctioning of the boxing gloves.

Chamber of Commerce Open Meeting Monday

The second open meeting of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce will be held Monday night in Guy Lombardo's East Point House. President Joseph Goldstein will outline plans for future activities of the group. There will be an open period during which members will be invited to offer suggestions for promoting the aim of the Chamber, "A Bigger and Better and More Progressive Freeport."

Patrolman Romelka works with a committee consisting of a few Freeport businessmen, civic leaders and educators. This committee supervises the overall programme and is responsible for administering all finances.

Unfortunately even the village and State grants combined do not provide sufficient funds to cope with the ever increasing membership, and additional money is needed if the club is to maintain its fine record of progress.

It is surely in the interest of all of us to back up any organization which sets out to promote the welfare of these young lads. So many of our cities have serious problems of juvenile control which might so easily be avoided if a few far-thinking citizens set up an organization similar to the Freeport Police Boys' Club.

Today's youth is the best possible investment for tomorrow. If Freeport people believe this then there is an open invitation to send a contribution now to the Freeport Police Boys' Club, Box 167, Freeport. All money will be acknowledged and used solely in the interest of these boys.

Rabbi Katz responded and expressed appreciation for the way he had been welcomed to the community. He mentioned especially Mr. Montefiore and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Goldstein for permitting him and his family to occupy their home. He promised to carry on with the activities Rabbi Noveck had introduced in Temple B'nai Israel.

Mr. Malsin was chairman of the committee in charge of the evening's program.

Dr. Greenberg called on the Jews to attend their houses of worship, and said he felt there was a renaissance among young Jews today. He recalled that as recently as 20 years ago, it was necessary to supply the pulpits with spiritual leaders from abroad and expressed pleasure that such men as Rabbi Noveck and Rabbi Katz were responding to the call to enter the ministry and devote their lives to becoming the religious leaders of the community. He recalled that Rabbi Katz and his wife studied under him and expressed the hope that they would be blessed with many years of fruitful service in Freeport.

OUR POLICY

IS IT THE TRUTH?
IS IT FAIR?

These are the two questions that must be answered by all those who work with me in the publication of this newspaper.

The Leader must not only stand for the Truth, but in all things, and for all people, The Leader must be Fair.

On our masthead is the slogan:
TRUTH AND FAIRNESS
This is the policy of The Leader.

I want The Leader to be a great newspaper.
A newspaper that will present both sides of a question.
A newspaper that will have LIFE — SPIRIT — COURAGE.
A newspaper that will EARN its place in the hearts of the people of our community.
This is the policy of The Leader.

Our Community should go Forward.
Here I want to see the very finest people—the very best merchants—the most respected government.
Whatever it takes to bring this about, I am for.
This is the policy of The Leader.

Progress and the Community

Freeport and the south shore of Nassau County have been blessed with the finest of nature's gems. The colorful waterfront of Freeport, with its friendly and experienced skippers, has attracted thousands of tourists and sportsmen from every corner of our great America.

To come to Freeport once a year for these many sporting thrills is considered an event and this beautiful locality, within the shadows of Manhattan's skyscrapers, has won the name of "Pleasure Island." We took the natural diamonds and gave them gorgeous settings of modern highways, beautiful parks, and picture-book homes.

Our merchants have combined their efforts to form specialized stores which offer the shopper even greater variety and price than most much-heralded department stores.

Our communities have all the advantages of the biggest cities and yet have not lost the friendliness, spirit, and personal warmth of the small village. Progress is built on a solid foundation. This comes with confidence, harmony and full cooperation of everyone. Freeport and its vicinity represent modern America today.

Wesley Southard, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the slate.

Mrs. Gockley, Mrs. Robert Lang, and Mrs. A. Robert Purdy were elected as delegates to the meeting of the Long Island Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in the Gayden City Hotel, Garden City, Friday, May 19.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Mr. Clements:
May I congratulate you on your acquisition of THE LEADER?
I am pleased to know that your new business manager, Wallace Campbell has had long association in the publishing business.
With the retention of my good friends Eddie Vasil and George Goeller, THE LEADER will become even more of a leader among the excellent weekly newspapers of Nassau County.

Nassau is privileged to have in its daily and local press, publishers, editors and reporters who know their country and its people and who never cease in their efforts to be of service to them.

As head of the County government I would like to assure you that my office is open at all times to render public service to you and the staff of your esteemed journal.

Every personal wish for your success.

Sincerely yours,
J. RUSSELL SPRAQUE,
County Executive

Dear Ray:
At the moment I am denied the privilege of shaking your hand and extending to you through that medium the warm bond of fellowship that I wish for you in your new enterprise in the purchase of our local newspaper, The Leader.

Freeport shares largely in the tremendous growth and development of Nassau County, and certainly Freeport needs a good managed newspaper.

I congratulate you most sincerely in the purchase of The Leader and having known you for so many years, I am sure that you will give the people of Freeport a first class publication that will always show candor and speak the truth.

I am particularly pleased that you have Wally Campbell associated with you in this new venture, and I pledge to you every support and wish you much success.

Yours Sincerely,
W. SARGENT NIXON
The Freeport Bank

Dear Wallace:
It pleases me more than I can tell you that you are entering the newspaper in Freeport.

Your long years of publishing experience should be of extraordinary value to you and I hardly think it is necessary for me to wish you the success which I am sure you richly deserve and which I am positive will reward your efficient services.

You had better put me on your subscription list.

Kind regards,
Cordially yours,
BERNARD MACADDEN

Dear Mr. Ray:
I have just learned of your acquisition of THE LEADER.

While I want to extend to you my congratulations and best wishes, I would like to assure you of my confidence in the fact that you have taken a most progressive step.

With your background and experience and the cooperation of Wally Campbell and your other associates, I believe THE LEADER will go places in the future.

Please be assured of our support and cooperation.

AUGUSTUS B. WELLER,
Meadow Brook National Bank

Dear Mr. Clements:
Just a note to wish you success in your new venture. I am sure the Leader can use your sort of leadership well. And I am also quite confident that in the future the Village will be better informed on the affairs of the Community Council.

Sincerely,
MABEL BATTIN

Dear Mr. Clements:
In behalf of the Commission, and myself, welcome to the honorable office of weekly journalism in Nassau County.

Anytime that we can be of service to you readers through your press contact us and we will be most happy to cooperate.

We do not disseminate publicity as such; but we do from time to time mail out and release public information so that it may be available to all channels of journalistic communication in the County.

Sincerely,
LAURENCE E. ANDREWS,
Public Works, Mineola, N.Y.

VASIL'S VARIETIES

By Eddie Vasil

Without or with offense to friends or foes,
I sketch your world exactly as it goes.—Byron

LEADER'S DIGEST . . . Some of the Main Stem habits put their name cards in the windshields of their cars. Are they proud of their vehicles, or is it for another reason? (Others are squawking.) . . . Give a nod of approval to veteran Freeport paint merchant ABE SEGEL for his originality. His own brand of paints is called "The Seagull Line." (It's a natural.) . . . MISS MARY RUSSELL will act as Ohair lady for the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Stella Maria No. 822, hold their 9th Communion Breakfast at the ELKS on May 25th. . . . That was PATSY KELLY (ex-headlining film comedienne) at JACK HARRIS' the other night.

AROUND TOWN . . . Add the name of HOWARD HICKS to the list of model men for the youth of BENNINGTON PARK to follow. (His record at the P.O. is tops.) . . . As predicted by your writer, SAM SARRAPEDE became a grandpoo. Both mother and son are feeling grand at FREEPORT HOSPITAL. (Sam recently bought a package store in Merrick.) . . . You've gotta give him credit: Legal eagle SAM ISRAEL has picked and steered many theatrical stars, (Ray Anthony, Jerry Lester, Billie Webster, etc.) but his latest protegee, Dick Van Patten, (starred on CBS-TV "Mamma" series) has been selected for the coveted "Ensign Pulver" role in the "Mr. Roberts" N.Y. play. (The "Lilavak Say" is a comedy with movie offers.) . . . That tall blonde beauty who was attracting stares in SCOTTIE MITCHELL'S Sat. nite, (and the place was packed) was none other than Freeport's top model, HELEN (Lamp) McCAFFREY. (Hubby Stan acquired ownership of an ace thoroughbred bangtail while in Florida, and slates its debut in Jersey soon.)

IN THIS CIVILIZED WORLD . . . Following this column's policy for trying to help all worthy causes, the following report is made with a heart burdened with sadness: Children are the innocent victims of all wars and foreign aggression. These things are completely beyond their understanding and yet, they are today fighting to exist under unbearable conditions. Reports from an investigator who toured Greece show that children, almost naked, sleep with scanty, if any bedclothes on damp earthen floors. Primary stages of T.B. are to be found in many homes. Their little feet are wrapped in rags, as are their pathetic undernourished bodies. Give this some thought! It's not money they ask, just old clothes that are not being used and ready to discard. Call this reporter at Freeport 8-7668, or direct to JOHN R. VOORIS, Pres. Save the Children Foundation, One Madison Ave., New York 10, N.Y.

ROUND TOWN . . . To say that ABE LITWAK is an active Main St. merchant, would be but scratching the surface. Among other things, this human dynamo has been top fistic athlete, one of the first to own and fly his own plane, major in the Air Force, and now holds both a military and private pilot's license. A columnist, his "Lilavak Say" was a highly popular fourth-estate offering in yesteryear. . . . Take it for what it's worth, but, a certain local in the know told me that the men casing that Main Stem eye-sore were May Dept. Store engineers and officials. (Hope that's true because that block is really a disgrace and murder to all attempts to build and promote Freeport.) . . . Merchants are getting wise by taking advantage of the parking fee program. Signs and remodeled rear entrances are attracting customers right off the lots. (LOU GRANT of LYNN'S on W. Merrick rd. just installed a honey.)

DURYEA ORCHID OF THE WEEK . . . The newspaper game is one of the most highly competitive. He is one of Long Island's weekly editors and columnists. He has been in addition to the countless other chores that face this type of fourth estate. However, his ingenuity, sincerity, and progressiveness did not go unrecognized. He rose to become an editor and columnist of one of Long Island's greatest dailies. He favored all equal, remembering the smallest and the greatest, because a reporter's life depends on many contacts. A local boy, "Lilavak Say" was a highly popular fourth-estate offering in yesteryear. . . . Take it for what it's worth, but, a certain local in the know told me that the men casing that Main Stem eye-sore were May Dept. Store engineers and officials. (Hope that's true because that block is really a disgrace and murder to all attempts to build and promote Freeport.) . . . Merchants are getting wise by taking advantage of the parking fee program. Signs and remodeled rear entrances are attracting customers right off the lots. (LOU GRANT of LYNN'S on W. Merrick rd. just installed a honey.)

FREEPORTING THE NEWS . . . The CHARLEY BUCKLEYS, (he's top legal ace) celebrated wedding anniversary—(at the circus). BETTY MULLBERGER's million dollar personality winning many friends at Western College in Oxford, Ohio. (Her dad owns popular RUDY'S restaurant on Woodlawn ave.) . . . The New England sports at JACK HARRIS' Grill Room are creations by HUGH ASHFORD, originally at the Eastlander Hotel in Portland, Me. . . . RAYMOND JOSEPH QUINN (a top exec. with Thomas M. Quinn & Sons) is a double for Freeport civic leader PETE KELLY. (Are they planning something big for their 4th of July funeral home?) . . . For something different, stop in at the MARINE DINER on W. Sunrise hwy. ELEANOR SCHMIDT has done wonders with the place and her food is drawing customers and tourists from all over this section. . . . Tickets for "Clutterbuck" one of Broadway's funniest plays, making their appearances locally thanks to a good-will gesture of BERNHARD'S PHARMACY of 54 W. Merrick rd.

TID-BITS . . . The EGERMAN Brothers, MAX and HARRY of GROVES PHOTO on Merrick rd. plan a brilliant program for their Lens Lane establishment. (Their one day service for pictures very popular.) . . . Sorry, this column cannot take any action when letters are not signed. (But many complaints are privately checked.) . . . Autograph seekers would have a plenty if they knew the big names who board the VIKING FLEET fishing boats these pre-season days. (Long drawn-out winter has made many sportsmen anxious for the thrills of fishing and it looks like Freeport will have a banner year.)

Note to GEORGE MORRISON (owner of the Stadium Tavern): Miss Barbara McCann, 74 Buffalo ave., Freeport, submitted the following: Firemen's boots originally had high, bridged arches, or ramps, to maintain a better grip on the rungs of the ladders. This gave the firemen a seemingly different gait on the ground. Thus the origin of the word "ramp" for firemen. Plenty of explaining entries . . . who won the prize you offered?

BEHIND THE FOOTLIGHTS . . . Talented ANN PIETRO directed the "Varieties of 1950" in a highly successful "CANDOR DRIVE SHOW" (April 24-26) at the HUMAN. (This is really a big-time talent.) . . . Congratulations to "THE HISSNER CLUB" on their presentation of "SPRING AGAIN" (their 11th annual show April 21-23). All members of the cast were excellent with CLARICE MARSHALL's role tops in naturalness and professional acting.

Paul Tierney, 14, a grandson, served as altar boy during the mass.

Nassau Doctors Back Diabetes Home-Tests

Wants Kits Available In Drug Stores and Industrial Plants

Home-testing for diabetes danger-signals has been backed by members of the Nassau County Medical Society as part of a state drive to cut down the more than 50,000 annual deaths caused by the disease, Dr. Walter C. Freese, the president, announced this week.

"There are more than 1,000,000 persons with undetected cases of diabetes in the United States today," Dr. Freese said. "Many of these will not see a doctor until the disease has reached a critical stage. However, if a simple home-testing device for diabetes symptoms could be placed in every home, much as the clinical thermometer has been, a majority of diabetic cases could be found and treated in the very early, curable stages."

Results of a test by the Richmond County Medical Society on Staten Island in 1949 proved the home-testing kit method to be effective. In the test free-detection kits were made available to all persons in neighborhoods served by druggists. More than 80 per cent of those receiving kits put them to use. If positive symptoms of diabetes were disclosed, the residents were instructed to visit their family physician for diagnosis and treatment. About two per cent of the total population in the area proved to have undetected cases of diabetes.

A drive is now in progress by the Nassau County Medical Society in cooperation with the New York State Medical Society to make these simple testing kits available to all county and state residents. It is planned to set up distribution centers at all drugstores and industrial plants.

Carol Rickey and Frank Winter Win Rotary 7th Grade Awards

Two seventh graders of the Freeport Junior Senior High School stole the spotlight from their parents whose names frequently appear in print, at the weekly supper of the Rotary Club of Freeport at the Elks clubhouse Thursday night. They were Carol Rickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Branch Rickey, and Frank F. Winter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Winter.

Carol and Frank are the winners in the second annual contest among the seventh graders sponsored by the Rotary, for the Park S. Demarest Memorial Awards. They were chosen by the vote of 264 fellow students on the basis of co-operation, leadership, fellowship, service and excellence in scholarship. Two trophies with bronze figures are to be presented to Carol and Frank at an assembly this afternoon in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Rickey, who is an official of the Brooklyn Baseball Club, spoke briefly, asserting that the Dodgers are the team to beat for this year's championship in the National League. He also told of several promising players coming up through the Brooklyn farm system he predicted would take the place of present day stars within the next few years.

William S. Hughes was elected president to succeed Ray E. Clements, Chester H. Smille, vice-president; Charles P. Shinn, secretary, and Harry H. Elliot, treasurer, with John P. Woods, Mr. Clements and Hermus S. Verbeek, directors. They will take office on July 1.

LAW GUARDS YOUR HEALTH HERE —but at HOME—IT'S UP TO YOU!

Public eating places must wash dishes in HOT water at temperatures specified by law. This is to protect you and your family when you eat out.

But how about when you eat home? Are you trying to wash dishes clean in luke-warm, greasy water? If so you are exposing your family to conditions you would not tolerate in a public eating place.

The way to be sure of plenty of really hot water for sanitary dishwashing—as well as other family uses—is to install an Automatic Gas Water Heater in your home now. GAS assures you adequate HOT water at the temperature you need.

Call us or stop in and we will show you how easy it is for you to purchase an Automatic GAS Water Heater and "Get on the Safe Side!"

V. F. W. Post And Auxiliary Hold Joint Installation

Officers of Henry Theodore Mohr Post, V.F.W., and its Auxiliary, were installed at largely attended joint exercises held in Fire Headquarters on North Main st. Saturday night.

Edward J. Johanneman was seated by the post succeeding Dominic Pellicio who has served three years as commander, while Mrs. Georgia Dator was inducted to succeed herself as president of the auxiliary.

Past Commander Joseph Noebel was the installing officer for the veterans and Mrs. Mabel Moore, past local and county president, for the women. There were remarks by Mayor Robert L. Dosses, former Mayor Cyril C. Ryan and Kenneth E. Vought, commander of William Clinton Story Post, A.L.

Mayor Dosses set the patron when he asserted despite declarations of high national officials that everything was well with America; he felt this was a sick country.

Though Senator Joseph G. McCarthy might be going too far in his charges that Communism exists among those in high office, the Mayor added that where there was some smoke there must be some fire. It was a tragedy, he continued when 20,000 students can riot in the streets, Mayor Dosses added it was up to the V.F.W. and kindred organizations to stem the tide and do all in their power to restore the country to its original status.

Mr. Ryan and Mr. Vought spoke in a similar vein.

Officers of the Auxiliary were installed first. The list follows:

Mrs. Dator, president; Ethel Halverson, senior vice-president; Blenda Kerr, junior vice-president; Juliana Semgen, secretary; Mrs. Moore, treasurer; Catherine Donnelly, chaplain; Lucy Johanneman, conductor; Madeline Donnelly, guard; Olga Neundorfer, three year trustee; Josephine Davis, Viola Davis, Edith Stupenstein and Mrs. Neundorfer, color bearers; Nellie Chalkley, flagbearer; Mary Carlino, banner bearer; Elizabeth Fluke, historian and Ruth Jones, patriotic instructor.

Guests introduced included: Mrs. Celia McDonald, of Baltimore, county president; Mrs. Neundorfer, gold star mother; Frederick Neundorfer, gold star father; Mildred Condon, senior county vice-president; Sophie Connolly, past president Roosevelt auxiliary; Mary

Box, county Americanism chairman and past president Roosevelt auxiliary; Madeline Tustell, president; Baldwin auxiliary; Louise Shuttleworth, past county president; Bessie Morrison, president Roosevelt auxiliary; Gertrude Gounihan, president Baltimore auxiliary; Sally Allen, past president; Vought auxiliary, and Jean Crane, past president Mineola auxiliary.

Retiring commander Pellicio assisted Mr. Noebel in installing the following officers:

Mr. Johanneman, commander; Dr. Raymond Straus, senior vice-commander; Edwin Stehle, junior vice-commander; Harry J. Moore, quartermaster; Gunter Batead, chaplain; Elhu Berman, judge advocate; Dr. Benjamin Pink, surgeon; Frederick Gessel, officer of the day; Mr. Pellicio, three-year trustee; George George Tomko, two-year trustee; William Stutenstein, one-year trustee; Mr. Noebel, adjutant; Frank Dator, flag bearer; Mr. Gessel, banner bearer; Donald Judd, patriotic instructor; Mr. Tustell, historian; Charles Chastelain, service instructor; John Jones, bugler; Clifford Combs, public relations officer; Henry Komurek, employment officer; Mr. Tomko, athletic chairman; Joseph Carlino, sentinel; Messrs. Gessel, Kornreich and Tomko, honor guard.

Besides those who spoke, guests introduced were Village Trustees Leonard D. B. Smith, and Seward J. Baker, Vice-commander Oscar Pultz and Charles Mountcastle, of the Legion.

Following the installation entertainment was provided by the Freeport Police Boys Club with Erle V. Painter as master of ceremonies. Those who participated were Frank Terrance, Thomas Chester and John Healy, Katherine Collins, William Hahn, Scottie MacKenzie, Joseph Romeka and August Marino.

Refreshments were served.

Questions and Answers With "Trade Secrets"

Question: Why does the Carpet Mart of Hempstead advertise and sell mill seconds when other stores bellow "Perfect Goods Only" and "No Seconds," etc?

or slip in precision looming—and the mill marks it "Mill Second." The Carpet Mart of Hempstead buys it for less and sells it for less, and you save! Save Save!

Answer: Trade Secret! We will now let you in on a Trade Secret. Buyers for the greatest carpet stores and departments stand in line and plead for "Mill Seconds." We sell out every inch of carpet when we receive 20' or 30 rolls of mill second Twist carpet. People looking for VALUE PLUS buy mill seconds on sight because we allow you to examine the whole roll of carpet before buying.

Question: Why do you advertise FREE LABOR AND LINING with wall to wall installation of carpet on sale? It really isn't free, is it?

Answer: Because it is FREE! It's a Value-Plus with the Carpet Mart of Hempstead. For example: the regular price of the heavy washable twist carpet on sale today is 10.95 sq. yd. Our Sale Price is 9.95 sq. yd. INCLUDING heavy 45 oz. Castle waffle lining, which you can not purchase anywhere for less than 1.50 sq. yd.—and we include the finest craftsman labor worth far more than the usual 1.00 sq. yd. charged elsewhere. It's still the same twist carpet regularly sold at 10.95 sq. yd., but we sell it at 9.95 sq. yd. and you get FREE labor and lining. To avoid confusion and imitations in the future, we will call such offerings "Carpet Mart Inclusions."

Question: Why do mills make "seconds" and "irregulars," and if they are such wonderful values, why don't the mills make more?

Answer: Trade Secret! No mill makes seconds intentionally. In the course of the vast production of a great mill, a slip of a needle, a wire mark, a tiny grease spot, or during a thousand other minute operations, just a fractional break

Exchange Club Assails Cut in Postal Service

The Exchange Club of Freeport at its weekly luncheon in the Elks clubhouse endorsed a resolution of the National Association of Letter Carriers 1163 condemning the action of the Postmaster General in Washington, D.C. in ordering a curtailment of service in all post offices through out the nation which will cost the jobs of some 10,000 postal men in the country. Police Justice Hilbert R. Johnson and David Levy, past presidents of the club, condemned the action of the government calling it ridiculous to give such poor service to any first class post office like Freeport with its population of 26,000.
